

THE BOY WHO CRIED WOLF

One day, a boy was watching his sheep.
He was very bored.
He wanted to play a trick.

"Help! wolf!" cried the boy.

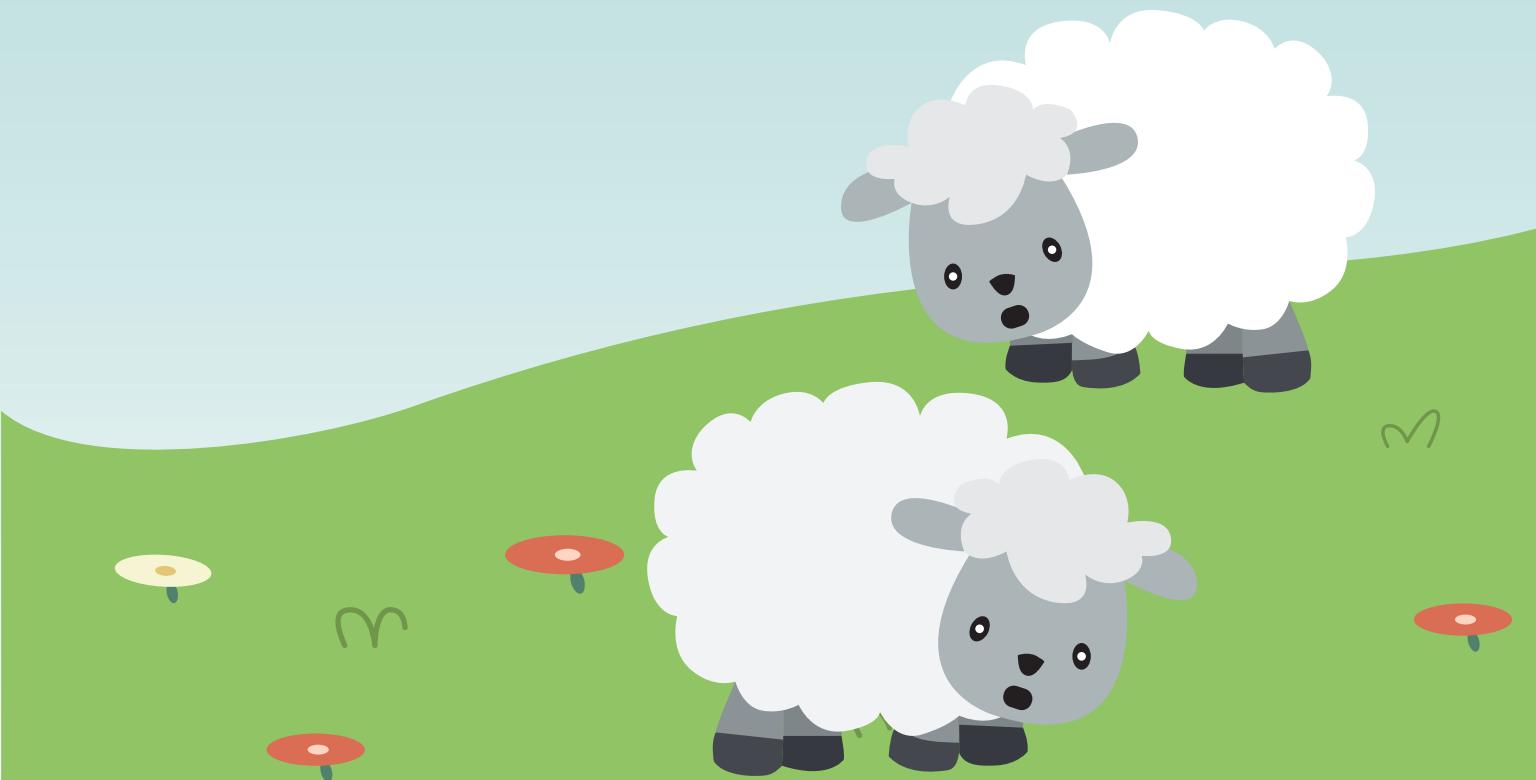

The people of the town ran to help.
There was no wolf.
The boy laughed.

The next week he did it again.
"Help!Wolf!"cried the boy

Again, the people of the town ran to help.
Again, there was no wolf.
Again, the boy laughed.

p.

Then, a wolf really did come for the sheep.

"Help! wolf!" cried the boy.

No one came to help.

The wolf chased all the boy's sheep away.

The boy learned a lesson.
People don't believe liars, even when they tell the truth.

"The Boy Who Cried Wolf," lesson: don't "cry wolf." If you depend on somebody, they won't believe you if something really bad happens; you will be blamed. This story explores many themes including honesty, trust, and responsibility.

" teaches a timeless moral
If you play a practical joke believe you when something lose their trust. The fable including truth, deception,

THE BOY WHO CRIED WOLF

Illustrated By Wong Yingyii